I.

Introduction and Statement of Facts

According to the reports provided by the government, on June 20, 2008, a Ford Expedition pulled into a Border Patrol checkpoint on Highway S-2 in the Imperial Valley of California. Codefendant Mirza Alvarez-Estrada was driving, her husband, defendant Jorge Camacho was in the front passenger seat. During the inspection, the driver appeared nervous, and the inspectors noticed people hiding under a tarp in the back of the Explorer. The Border Patrol agents detained the vehicle, and found undocumented Mexican citizens in the Explorer along with the defendants.

Ms. Alvarez, a Guatemalan Citizen with Legal Permanent Resident status and a pending asylum hearing in the United States, invoked her right to remain silent and was not questioned.

Mr. Camacho waived his rights and admitted that he had agreed to transport the undocumented aliens by picking them up at a casino and taking them to Oceanside, California. He stated that his wife was not involved in the smuggling transaction and that she was unaware that the individuals were undocumented.

The undocumented individuals provided similar accounts, explaining that they had paid smugglers

1 to be crossed into the United States and transported further north. They were crossed by foot guides, then 2 told to call a number. They called the number, spoke with a woman who indicated that some people 3 would be sent to retrieve them, and that the Explorer arrived later. The occupants of the Explorer told 4 them to get in the back, where they remained until they were captured. The aliens were not able to 5 implicate the defendants in crossing them or in participating in the planning or arrangements for the 6 crossing from Mexico. Nonetheless, the government sought, and the grand jury returned an indictment 7 charging transportation of illegal aliens as well as bringing in illegal aliens for financial gain.

8 Mr. Camacho and Ms. Alvarez remain in custody, as do the material witnesses.

11 Motion to Compel Discovery/Preserve Evidence

12 This request is not limited to those items that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all 13 discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any "closely related 14 investigative [or other] agencies" under United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989), and 15 discovery of which the government attorney may become aware through the exercise of due diligence:

16 (1) The Defendants Statements. Mr. Camacho requests disclosure of all copies of any written or 17 recorded statement made by the him or his codefendant; any written record containing the substance of 18 any oral statements made by the him or his codefendant and any written summaries of the his or his 19 codefendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten or rough notes of the government agent; any 20 response to any Miranda warnings which may have been given by him or any codefendant; any response 21 by either of the defendants to interrogation; as well as any other statements by the defendants. Fed. R.
 22 Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A).

23 (2) Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. Mr. Camacho also specifically requests the 24 government to turn over all arrest reports, notes, dispatch or any other tapes, and TECS records that relate 25 to the circumstances surrounding his arrest or any questioning. This request includes, but is not limited to, 26 any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents which contain statements of the 27 defendant or any other discoverable material. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A); Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S.
 28 83 (1963). The government must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting

1 officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. Fed. R.
2 Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and (C); Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(I).

3 (3) Criminal Record Evidence of criminal record is available under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).
4 Evidence of other "similar" acts is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and Fed. R. Evid.
5 404(b) and 609; Mr. Camacho requests all his rap sheets and any other evidence discoverable under these 6 rules. Mr. Camacho requests all evidence, documents, records of judgments and convictions, photographs 7 and tangible evidence, and information pertaining to any arrests and convictions or bad acts he has 8 suffered or known of by the government. He makes an identical request for all pertinent records of all co-9 defendants, former co-defendants and government witnesses including informants.

10 (4) Evidence Seized. Mr. Camacho requests production of evidence seized as a result of any 11 search, either with or without a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C).

12 (5) Tangible Objects. Mr. Camacho requests the opportunity to inspect and copy as well as test, 13 if necessary, all documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents, 14 alleged narcotics or narcotics related items, fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, 15 which are material to the defense or intended for use in the government's case-in-chief or were obtained 16 from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C). This is particularly necessary in this case 17 because marijuana plants have a specific definition in federal law, and Mr. Camacho needs an opportunity 18 to independently inspect all of the suspected marijuana plants so that he can determine whether each 19 alleged plant has a readily observable root formation such as roots, a rootball, or root hairs.

20 (6) Request for Preservation of Evidence. Mr. Camacho specifically requests the preservation of 21 all dispatch recordings, inter-officer radio communication recordings, agents' rough notes, any documents, 22 and any other physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession, 23 custody, or care of the government and which relate to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this 24 case. This request includes, but is not limited to seized weapons, alleged contraband (see § II(5), supra)
25 and vehicles, the results of any fingerprint analysis, Mr. Camacho's personal effects, and any evidence 26 seized from the defendant or any other party.

27 (7) Reports Of Examinations And Tests. Mr. Camacho requests the opportunity to inspect and 28 copy any reports of physical and mental examinations and any scientific tests which are material to the 1 preparation of the defense or intended for use in the government's case-in-chief. Fed. R. Crim. P.

2 16(a)(1)(D).

3 (8) Expert Witnesses. Mr. Camacho requests the name, qualifications, and a written summary of 4 the opinion/testimony and bases thereon of any person that the government intends to call as an expert 5 witness. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

6 (9) Brady Material. Mr. Camacho requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and 7 tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt, which affects the credibility of the 8 government's case, or which may result in a lower sentence under the United States Sentencing 9 Guidelines. Under Brady, impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of 10 evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 11 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

12 (10) Giglio Information. Mr. Camacho requests all statements and/or promises, express or 13 implied, made to any government witnesses in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other 14 information which could arguably be used for the impeachment of any government witnesses. Giglio v.
15 United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972).

16 (11) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. Mr. Camacho requests disclosure of the name(s), 17 address(es), criminal record and location(s) of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or potentially 18 to be used in this case, and in particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this 19 case or otherwise participated in the crime charged. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 (1957).
20 The government must disclose any information derived from informants which exculpates or tends to 21 exculpate the defendant. Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The government must disclose any 22 information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Id. Mr. Camacho also 23 requests that the government disgorge any information in its possession regarding other parties culpable in 24 this matter as these individuals are highly relevant and material to Mr. Camacho's defense.

25 In this case, the government used an active duty marine as an informant. As a participant in the 26 narcotic transactions, this CI is a percipient witness. According to statements the informant made while 27 wired up, the informant was convicted in a military court martial. For impeachment purposes, as well as 28 to present his own defense, which may be based on entrapment, Mr. Camacho needs full background

1 information on this informant, starting with his name and address, and including his criminal record 2 (civilian and military) along with any documentation of promises made to or expectations of leniency or 3 otherwise favorable treatment expressed by or to the informant.

4 (12) Jencks Act Material. Mr. Camacho requests production in advance of trial of all material, 5 including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3500. Advance 6 production will avoid the possibility of delay at the request of defendant to investigate the Jencks material.
 7 A verbal acknowledgment that "rough" notes constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is 8 sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under §3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 9 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991), the Ninth 10 Circuit held that when an agent goes over interview notes with the subject of the interview the notes are 11 then subject to the Jencks Act.

12 (13) Any Potential 404(b)/609 Evidence. Mr. Camacho requests prior notice of any other crimes 13 or bad acts that the government intends to introduce, whether in its case in chief, for impeachment or 14 rebuttal. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C); Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609(b). Mr. Camacho requests such 15 notice at least one month before trial in order to give the defense time to investigate and prepare for trial.

16 (14) Any Information That May Result In A Lower Sentence Under The Guidelines As discussed
 17 above, this information is discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83(1963). This request 18 includes any cooperation or attempted cooperation by the defendant, as well as any information that could 19 affect any base offense level or specific offense characteristic under Chapter Two of the Guidelines. Also 20 included in this request is any information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of the 21 defendant's criminal history, or any other application of the Guidelines. Additionally, Mr. Camacho 22 specifically requests any evidence the government intends to use at sentencing to establish his status as a 23 career offender or for any other enhancement to his sentence;

24 (15) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie Mr. Camacho requests any evidence that any prospective 25 government witness, including a cooperating defendant, is biased or prejudiced against the defendant, or 26 has a motive to falsify or distort her or her testimony. Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39 (1987); 27 United States v. Striffler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988); 28

1 (16) Impeachment evidence Mr. Camacho requests any evidence that any prospective government 2 witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether any witness 3 has made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613. Such evidence is 4 discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, supra. See United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197(9th Cir.
 5 1988)(witness' prior record); Thomas v. United States, 343 F.2d 49 (9th Cir. 1965)(evidence that detracts 6 from a witness' credibility);

7 (17) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness Mr. Camacho requests any 8 evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any 9 criminal conduct. United States v. Chitty, 760 F.2d 425 (2d Cir.) cert. denied, 474 U.S. 945 (1985);

10 (18) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth Telling Mr.
 11 Camacho requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, tending to 12 show that any prospective witness's ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is 13 impaired; and any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has 14 ever been an alcoholic. United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988); Chavis v. North Carolina, 15 637 F.2d 213, 224 (4th Cir. 1980);

16 (19) Witness Addresses Mr. Camacho requests the name and last known address of each 17 prospective government witness. See United States v. Napue, 834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United 18 States v. Tucker, 716 F.2d 576 (9th Cir. 1983) (failure to interview government witnesses by counsel is 19 ineffective assistance); United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense has equal 20 right to talk to witnesses). The defendant also requests the name and last known address of every witness 21 to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will not be 22 called as a government witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d, 1453 (9th Cir. 1984);

23 (20) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant Mr. Camacho requests the name of any 24 witness who made an arguably favorable statement concerning the defendant or who could not identify 25 him or who was unsure of her identity, or participation in the crime charged. Jackson v. Wainwright, 390 26 F.2d 288 (5th Cir. 1968); Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 223 (4th Cir. 1980); Jones v. Jago, 575 27 F.2d 1164, 1168 (6th Cir.), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 883 (1978); Hudson v. Blackburn, 601 F.2d 785 (5th 28 Cir. 1979), cert. denied, 444 U.S. 1086 (1980);

1 (21) Statements Relevant to the Defense Mr. Camacho requests disclosure of any statement that 2 may be "relevant to any possible defense or contention" that he might assert. United States v. Bailleaux, 3 685 F.2d 1105 (9th Cir. 1982);

4 (22) Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest Mr. Camacho requests all 5 citizen complaints and other related internal affairs documents involving any of the immigration officers 6 or other law enforcement officers who were involved in the investigation, arrest and interrogation of him, 7 pursuant to Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539 (1974). Because of the sensitive nature of 8 such Henthorn documents, defense counsel will not be able to procure them from any other source;

9 (23) Prosecutor's Duty to Inspect Agent's Files Mr. Camacho requests that the court order the 10 prosecutor to personally review the personnel files of the agents involved.

11 (24) Release of Evidence for Defense Testing. Mr. Camacho requests that the government release 12 to his designated expert all items seized so that the defense may conduct independent testing of the items.

13 (25) Subpoena, Intercept and Warrant Information and Evidence. Mr. Camacho requests a copy 14 of all electronic interception orders, search warrants and subpoenas (whether state or federal, whether 15 written or telephonic, and including recordings or transcripts of telephonic applications), and related 16 applications for electronic interception, subpoenas and warrants, their affidavits, attachments, and 17 inventories related to this case. He also requests copies of all documents provided to or seized by the 18 government pursuant to such court-authorized orders. He requests copies of all recordings made by the 19 government made pursuant to warrant or order as well as line-sheets and any other documentation of such 20 recordings.

21 (26) Alienage Information. Mr. Camacho requests all information and evidence in the 22 government's possession relating to his alienage, his co-defendant's alienage, and that of the material 23 witnesses, including Immigration A-Files, records of deportable aliens, and any other relevant documents.

24 (27) Residual Discovery/All Other Relevant Materials Mr. Camacho intends for this motion to 25 cover the full extent of discoverable material. She therefore requests that the government be required to 26 disgorge all other discoverable material which she otherwise has failed to request.
